WD Culture - Getting Rid of "The Lazy Racist"

by Alan Rich

1. Remind them once a day when possible that "black lives matter."
2. Invite them a local event you know is diverse but the name doesn't appear so.
3. Ask if the reason why they gave up the sheets was over trying to keep white linen clean.
4. Talk to them about how Aryans were actually Indo-Iranians
5. Constantly mistake them for an ethnicity they despise.

6. Get them a copy of Schindler's List wrapped as a gift once a month. Tell them it's for their birthday every time.
7. Buy a $30 bluetooth speaker and play Bad Bunny full blast from the moment they get home from work to the time of quiet hours.
8. Keep using the term "Welfare Check" in either the wrong context or without context at all.
9. Keep a large oil painting of Malcom X in a window easily visible to them. Write "I love you (their name) in big enough letters.
10. Let them know 1-9 continues until they STFU.

WD HOW-TO-DO

MAKING A BAYONET

by Grizzly Braces

1. Get your gun and knife of choice. While a butter knife will penetrate flesh, a Ginsu knife will cut flesh with swiftness.
2. Get some tape. Duct is better than packing here.

3. Position your knife underneath the barrel with the sharp end pointing away from the trigger.
4. Tape the knife to the barrell.

5. Reread #3 and #4. Because you're gonna be in for a surprise if you taped the knife above the barrel and wind up shooting your knife if you do a poor tape job.

6. Admire your handywork. This can be achieved by just looking at it, or going out to a field with a few watermelons and some ammo.

7. When WWII breaks out and troops come up the shore, then test it on people.

WD TRAVEL

Before you leave on your trip, either have existing pill bottles that are labeled for the medication or some sort of medical record showing that you use the medication.

Don't go overboard with how much you buy in the foreign land you are visiting. 90 days supply of a medicine is a good rule of thumb to limit yourself to on return home.

Don't bring Schedule I substances with you. Even if it's legal on both sides, marijuana will still get you a nice stay at the nearest Club Fed facility. Solitary is not just a card game.

Don't get sweaty or talk nervous with a stutter.

TRAVELING WITH DRUGS

by "Cachetes" Hernandez

When speaking, be clear and enunciate. Talking like a 3rd grader is going to cause more problems than solving them.

Pack it away just like you would pack away any other prescription meds you would need on a trip. Act as such too. Treat it just like it is an everyday thing that you normally do.

If you do get asked about what any of the items are, be truthful with broad language. "Sir or Mam, these are my prescribed meds that I take on a regular basis."

Don't speed to or away from the checkpoint. Drive like Ms. Daisy is with you and you'll be just fine.

WD SELF-DEFENSE

ONE PUNCH MAN

by Mike Bison

The reality is that there is no consistent way to knock someone into a coma with one punch. It just cannot be guaranteed to work every-time. If you really wanna make sure they're out for the count, you fight like street fighting. Use a brick or a big blunt object to the head. You're fighting for your life, not to win points from a panel of judges.

BULLSHIT

Experiment Mother

“The first 2 weeks at home were the worst, it was a struggle to not shoot myself, my husband, or my kid.”

THE ERA OF THE HANDGUN

Several millennial mothers have decided to undergo radical surgery in an attempt to be ready 24/7 for threats they deem pervasive in modern america. Three of 21 involved in the experiment told us their story at a recent convention.

SAMPSON D. RICHTER | APRIL 18, 2023

It was to be a promising exhibition for the future of firearms. Nobody was the wiser to give us notice that firearm was literal.

People from around the country along with other parts of the world had gathered for this. Cops, military members, diplomats, politicians, survivalists of the affable and ornery sort, neo-Nazis, biker gangs, and soccer-moms that watch true-crime shows more than their own children. Getting through the thick of them to get from one vendor to another required it's own skill. The mix looked volatile as though any infraction could set it off. Only a deitous being could grasp what was holding it all together.

Walking around I had seen many run of the mill weapons that an American citizen could identify or be familiar with. Pistols, shotguns, boot-knives to name a few. Every vendor touting that they had an improvement or was holding on to design process of a golden era. It would take a pitch great enough to sell lake front property in Vatican City to get me on board to buy a 6 shooter revolver. Some people have a binge for nostalgia.

If it wasn't for the fact that I was told that there was a exhibition speaker that was a must-see, I would have avoided this circus show at all costs. If the visuals were not enough to make you concerned, the mix of high end cologne with the scent of a man that screams hobo had sex with a bag of dirt filling the room should've done the trick.
